

CHESHIRE COUNTY GOLF PARTNERSHIP

Press release

09.06.2012

For immediate release

THREE NEW clubs have joined the drive to encourage more people to take up golf in Cheshire.

Walton Hall GC, Altrincham GC and Vale Royal Abbey GC are all staging coaching programmes for would-be golfers.

The free schemes are part of the county-wide programme to provide more opportunities for people to try the sport.

Walton Hall Golf Club, at Warrington, is running a Golf 4 Women session on Friday, July 13 with Golf 4 All coaching available on July 24 and August 28. Contact professional Paul Hodgson on paul@golfstorehouse.com for more details or to register your interest.

Altrincham GC is staging a Golf 4 Women session on June 15, while Golf 4 All starts on June 13 or 20. A further course will be held from September 14. Further details from professional James Salt on james.salt@traffordleisure.co.uk

The sessions at Vale Royal Abbey, near Northwich, start on July 21 with Golf 4 All from 1.30-2.30pm and Golf 4 Women at 3-4pm. Contact professional David Ingman on 01606 301291 option 4 for more information.

Says Craig Thomas, county development officer for the Cheshire County Golf Partnership: "These schemes give anyone interested in trying golf the ideal opportunity to give it a go alongside people in a similar situation.

"It is a sport that offers a healthier lifestyle and, with the potential for club membership in the future, an enjoyable social life, too."

Note to editors

The England Golf Partnership is a collaboration of the major stakeholders in golf, including England Golf - the organisation formed by the merger of The English Golf Union and The English Women's Golf Association - the PGA, the Golf Foundation and Sport England.

In Cheshire the partnership is supported by the Cheshire Union of Golf Clubs, the Cheshire County Ladies Golf Association and the Cheshire and North Wales PGA.
