For immediate release

TWO NEW clubs have joined the drive to encourage more people to take up golf in Cheshire.

Tytherington and Eaton golf clubs are both staging coaching programmes for would-be golfers.

The free schemes are part of the county-wide programme to provide more opportunities for people to try the sport.

Tytherington's Golf4All sessions start on May 14 and 15 at 6pm. The club, near Macclesfield, also has coaching schemes starting on May 26 and 27 at 12pm.

Further details are available from the club on 01625 506 000.

Eaton Golf Club, at Waverton near Chester, is holding special sessions for women only starting on June 16 and September 8. The club is running Golf4All programmes from July 28 and November 3.

Further details are available by calling 01244 335885, extension 3.

Says Craig Thomas, county development officer for the Cheshire County Golf Partnership: "These schemes give anyone interested in trying golf the ideal opportunity to give it a go alongside people in a similar situation.

"It is a sport that offers a healthier lifestyle and, with the potential for club membership in the future, an enjoyable social life, too."

Both clubs have been awarded GolfMark.

GolfMark is a national scheme that incorporates ClubMark and recognises junior and beginner friendly golf facilities that focus on Coaching and Playing, Club Environment and Child Protection, and Duty of Care, all of which are extremely important to parents and children alike.

GolfMark is an initiative jointly provided by the EGU and EWGA via the England Golf Partnership's 'Whole Sport Plan' for golf and is an integral part of the England Golf Partnership's vision to 'Grow the Game'.

Note to editors

The England Golf Partnership is a collaboration of the major stakeholders in golf, including England Golf - the organisation formed by the merger of The English Golf Union and The English Women's Golf Association - the PGA, the Golf Foundation and Sport England.

In Cheshire the partnership is supported by the Cheshire Union of Golf Clubs, the Cheshire County Ladies Golf Association and the Cheshire and North Wales PGA.
