

CHESHIRE COUNTY GOLF PARTNERSHIP

Press release

22.09.2012

For immediate release

BRITISH summer time may be officially over, but clubs across Cheshire are continuing to make it easier than ever to give golf a go.

As part of the nationwide Get into golf campaign, clubs are offering free taster sessions or discounted coaching.

Disley GC are offering five-week courses for beginners as part of the Cheshire County Golf Partnership's Golf 4 All and Golf 4 Women projects.

The one hour sessions start on October 11, November 8 and December 6 with a start time of 10am for Golf 4 All and 11am for the ladies.

Tytherington GC is launching a Golf 4 All course on October 14 (12noon) and a Golf 4 Women at 1pm and also on October 15 (6pm). Golf 4 All will also be available from October 15 (6pm).

The Drivetime driving range – in Slutchers Lane, Center Park, Warrington – have Golf 4 All sessions running from September 26, October 16 and October 25.

Says Craig Thomas, county development officer for the Cheshire County Golf Partnership: "The Get into golf campaign won't stop during the autumn and winter – in fact this is an ideal time to get out of the house and enjoy a social and active hobby that will stand you in good stead for years to come."

Get into golf is a national campaign to inspire new golfers run by the England Golf Partnership through its network of County Golf Partnerships, which work to grow the game.

Get into golf opportunities include free or low-cost beginner courses with PGA professionals. They are a fun and sociable way to start golf – and a great way to make new friends.

Note to editors

The England Golf Partnership (EGP) brings together the amateur governing body, England Golf and the PGA, to grow the game with the support of the Golf Foundation and Sport England.

County Golf Partnerships, involving the county men's women's and professional organisations, are part of the EGP's Whole Sport Plan for golf and an integral part of its vision to make England the world's leading golf nation by 2020.

In Cheshire the partnership is supported by the Cheshire Union of Golf Clubs, the Cheshire County Ladies Golf Association and the Cheshire and North Wales PGA.
