

CHESHIRE COUNTY GOLF PARTNERSHIP

Press release

06.07.2013

For immediate release

A TARPORLEY club has joined the drive to encourage more people to give golf a go in Cheshire.

Macdonald Portal Golf and Spa, based in Cobblers Cross Lane, is hosting a number of discounted coaching sessions aimed at beginners or those starting out in the sport.

The club is running five-week group coaching sessions for just £25, with Golf 4 Women starting on July 30, Golf 4 All on August 1 and Playmore Golf for women on August 9.

Further details from the club's PGA professional Robert Cullen on robpga85@icloud.com

Says Craig Thomas, county development officer for the Cheshire Golf Partnership: "Golf is a sport that can be enjoyed by all ages and abilities and a regular round of golf can help contribute to a healthier lifestyle.

"Clubs across the county are making it easier than ever for people to give golf a go.

"Starting out in a group of people in a similar situation is a great introduction to the sport and the social and fun aspect of getting to grips with new skills."

Get into golf is a national campaign to inspire new golfers run by the England Golf Partnership through its network of County Golf Partnerships, which work to grow the game.

Get into golf opportunities include free or low-cost beginner courses with PGA professionals. They are a fun and sociable way to start golf – and a great way to make new friends.

Discounted lessons can cost as little as £25 for a five-week course.

Editors' notes

The England Golf Partnership (EGP) brings together the amateur governing body, England Golf and the PGA, to grow the game with the support of the Golf Foundation and Sport England.

County Golf Partnerships, involving the county men's women's and professional organisations, are part of the EGP's Whole Sport Plan for golf and an integral part of its vision to make England the world's leading golf nation by 2020. The EGP runs the Get into golf campaign through its network of County Golf Partnerships.

In Cheshire the partnership is supported by the Cheshire Union of Golf Clubs, the Cheshire County Ladies Golf Association and the Cheshire and North Wales PGA.
